The webinar series consisted of five (05) webinars and was organized with the Course Unit of “ACF 3103 – Taxation” by the 300 level students who are specializing in “Accounting & Finance”. The students formed five groups and interviewed industry experts or professionals who possess knowledge and experience in Taxation. The students selected a contemporary topic and lived-stream the interview session on a virtual platform. Further, students carried out promotional activities of their webinars through social media using the official Facebook Page, LinkedIn Page and YouTube Channel of “Taxation Explored”. Then, the students uploaded the videocast to the official YouTube Channel and prepared a report based on the interview to publish in the upcoming Annual E-Magazine of “Taxation Explored”. Finally, students distributed E-certificates to the participants and sent the letters and tokens of appreciation to the resource persons.

The graphic is a promotional poster for a webinar series. It features a dark blue background with a glowing, ethereal light effect. At the top left, the text "TAXATION EXPLORED' 21" is written in large, bold, yellow and white letters. To its right, a blue arrow points to the words "WEBINAR SERIES" in white. Further right, the title "THE ULTIMATE END" is displayed in large, pink, glowing letters. Below the title, the subtitle "A Discursive Journey in Untangling Taxation" is written in white. In the top right corner, there is a circular logo of the University of Kelaniya. The central part of the graphic features five circular portraits of the speakers, each with a corresponding text box below it. The speakers and their topics are: Mr. Nihal Chandrasiri Wijewardene (Taxation Midst Covid-19 Pandemic), Mr. Viraj Henegedara (The Challenges and Shifts in the Inland Revenue Act), Ms. Charmaine Tillekeratne (Implication of Tax for Individuals and Entrepreneurs), Ms. Chanie Rodrigo (Value Added Tax and Moving Ahead), and Mr. Dharmadasa Rangalle (Tax Administration in the Post Covid - 19 Era).
